

Art Education Work Experience Opportunity

This is an opportunity to shadow Artist and Educator, Louise Clarke, for one of a series of workshops at NN. Through work shadowing you can gain valuable experience that not only looks good on your CV but also gives you hands-on knowledge of working with an Artist and Educator on a live event.

The role of an Educator includes the conception, development and delivery of creative events and skills ranging from public speaking to time management, dealing with a wide range of people and needs. Louise will talk to you about her work and it will be ideal for those keen to encourage the public to visit and value arts and culture through creative participation.

Each workshop will have two work shadowing places. To apply for a place please complete the following form and return it to info@nncontemporaryart.org by 10 May 2016, 6pm.

Person specification:

You will need to demonstrate a keen interest in contemporary art and culture

An ability to communicate with the general public

A professional, polite and patient demeanor

Technical skills desirable, but not necessary

A positive attitude and desire to learn

To apply please complete the following form. You will receive an email to confirm that we have received your application within 3 days.

Deliver your application to:
